Editorial Board Application

The Editorial Board of the DCBA consists of 24 members, appointed to 3-year terms by the President, with advice and consent of the Board of Directors. Each year, the Editorial Board solicits DCBA members interested in open positions on its board, reviewing qualifications and submitting its recommendations to the DCBA President for consideration.

Editorial Board members must be able to regularly attend meetings* and contribute to the publication of the magazine through writing and editing assignments.

Membership recommendations are based on the following:

- DCBA membership in good standing is required
- Previous experience in writing and/or editing of law-related articles (include samples of writing)
- Area(s) of law concentration practice
